

NO PLEASURE CARS WILL BE BUILT BY FORD DURING WAR

Henry Ford will build no more pleasure automobiles until the war is over, according to the Philadelphia Public Ledger. He will devote his entire plant to the production of war necessities, such as tractors, ambulances, aircraft engines and shells. Through his personal representative, C. H. Willis, he recently offered to discontinue absolutely the production of pleasure cars, and under the head of "pleasure cars" all the ordinary runabouts, touring cars and small commercial trucks which his plant has turned out by the thousands.

$1,500 STORE LOOT FOUND.

The police have found at Tarboro, N. C., $1,500 in loot which William Lovett, colored, forty-five years old, of 706 L street northwest, is alleged to have stolen from the King's Palace department store, 810 Seventh street, where he was night watchman. Lovett was arrested Sunday.

Cabinet Women Luncheon Guests At White House

Mrs. Wilson entertained informally at luncheon at the White House yesterday for the ladies of the Cabinet. The only absentee was Mrs. William C. H. Willis, wife of the Secretary of Labor, who is ill. Her daughter, Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, was present in her place. This is the first occasion this season that the ladies of the Cabinet circle have thus come together, with each member of the President's official family represented. Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, had an informal luncheon for the wives of her husband's colleagues earlier in the season, but at the time several of the Cabinet women were out of town.

Carranza to Be "Witness" For Dr. Rojo's Bride

The President of Mexico, General Carranza, and Gen. Alvaro Obregon, Mexican statesman and soldier, will be witnesses for the bride at the marriage of Senorita Dolores Cecilia Bonillas, daughter of the Mexican ambassador and Senora de Bonillas, and Dr. Juan L. Rojo, first secretary of the embassy, on November 17. They will, of course, be represented by proxy, being unable to come to this country. His younger brother, Guillermo, Senorita Bonillas will have as her only attendant her sister, Senorita Maria Bonillas.

The ceremony will be performed at 11 o'clock in the beautiful ballroom of the embassy and will be followed by nuptial high mass. A large reception will be given for the young people at the embassy after their return from their wedding trip. They will make their home in Washington for the present.

The President and Mrs. Wilson had a box at R. F. Keith's Theater last evening and had with them Mrs. Edward Elliott, of California, Professor Stockton Axson, and Miss Helen Woodrow. Mrs. Elliott and Professor Axson are guests at the White House.

To Sing in Richmond. Miss Margaret Wilson, who is now in New York, will take part in a concert to be given in the City Auditorium, Richmond, Va., tomorrow night, under the auspices of the national organization of Camp Fire Girls, of which President Wilson is an honorary president. Miss Wilson will give several numbers and the proceeds of the concert will be given to the National Red Cross. Mr. Percy Grainger, pianist, who has several times been heard in the White House, will accompany Miss Wilson and act as patronesses.

Miss Wilson's program in the Southern city will be a double one, and in the afternoon she will be the guest of honor at a war tea at the Hotel Jefferson, from 5 to 6:30 o'clock, and will stand in line with those receiving. The proceeds of the tea will be divided between the Red Cross and the Camp Fire Girls.

An interesting wedding took place at the Booth estate near Clinton, Md., on Saturday, November 3, when Miss Evelyn Lawrence Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Booth, became the bride of George William Moore, of New York. The ceremony was at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. P. M. Mithun, of Woodside, Md., as the officiating clergyman, and was followed by a reception for relatives and intimate friends.

The bride's costume was fashioned of rich ivory-toned satin, combined with lace and embroidered with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and orchids. The house was decorated with oak leaves, palms and chrysanthemums. An interesting feature of the
